

The Dick Reynolds Club presents

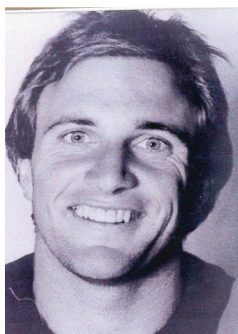

BOMBERS

IN THE MEDIA

Please join us at the Dick Reynolds Club luncheon to meet Essendon Football Club identities who have gone on to play prominent roles in the media.

Our host for the day is Bombers favourite son, Tim Watson, a prominent football identity on TV and Radio.

Panel members to be interviewed include; Matthew Lloyd and Scott Lucas who were affectionately dubbed the "twin towers". Former Bomber Captain, Jobe Watson, who is now a regular TV special comments commentator. Sarah Jones, granddaughter of Essendon Football Club Legend, Jack Jones, is part of the panel. Adam Ramanauskas and Scott Cummings, will also join us.

Book now as places are limited due to current restrictions.

Date: Wednesday, 4 August 2021

Time: 12 noon -3.00 pm Dress Code: Business Suit or Jacket, no tie, no denim.

Luncheon includes a two course meal and beverages.

Venue: RACV Club, 501 Bourke Street, Melbourne.

Cost: DRC Members - $130 EFCPP & OA Members- $130
Non Members/Guests - $140

Bookings - <https://www.trybooking.com/BRJSD>

The Dick Reynolds Club is part of the Past Players and Officials Association. The purpose of the DRC is to foster the support and spirit of the Essendon Football Club by celebrating its proud history and culture. All funds raised go to the Past Players Foundation to provide benefits for those who are suffering financial, health or lifestyle hardship.

